

Braglio Farms 2026 Vendor Agreement

Vendor Eligibility & Scope

This agreement applies to all vendors, including but not limited to food trucks, artisan food vendors, retail vendors, and service providers participating in events at Braglio Farms.

Braglio Farms reserves the right to approve or deny vendor participation at its sole discretion.

Licensing, Permits & Compliance

All food trucks and artisan food vendors are required to obtain and maintain the appropriate day-of-event licenses and permits required by local, county, and state authorities.

Vendors acknowledge that the Health Department may be on site during events and may deny operation if proper documentation is not presented. Failure to provide correct paperwork may result in immediate removal from the event without refund.

All required Baltimore County permits (and any other applicable jurisdictional permits) must be secured prior to the event. Compliance with all health, safety, fire, and zoning regulations is the sole responsibility of the vendor.

Setup, Operations & Conduct

Vendors are responsible for their own setup, breakdown, staffing, equipment, and supplies unless otherwise agreed to in writing.

Vendors must operate only within their assigned space and adhere to all operational guidelines provided by Braglio Farms staff.

Vendors agree to conduct business in a professional manner and maintain a clean, safe, and orderly vending area at all times.

Fees & Payments

Vendor fees are non-refundable.

Payment must be received in full by the deadline communicated at the time of acceptance. Failure to submit payment by the required date may result in forfeiture of the vendor's space.

Weather & Event Changes

Events are held rain or shine unless otherwise determined by Braglio Farms.

If an event must be rescheduled due to weather or unforeseen circumstances and a vendor is unable to attend the new date, the vendor fee will be issued as a credit that may be applied to a future Braglio Farms event. Credits are non-transferable and hold no cash value.

Liability & Insurance

Vendors participate at their own risk and agree to hold Braglio Farms harmless from any claims, damages, losses, or liabilities arising from the vendor's participation.

Vendors are responsible for carrying appropriate insurance coverage for their business operations.

Right to Refuse or Remove

Braglio Farms reserves the right to refuse participation or remove any vendor who fails to comply with this agreement, applicable laws, or event rules. Removal due to non-compliance does not entitle the vendor to a refund.

Agreement Acknowledgment

By submitting a vendor application and/or participating in events at Braglio Farms, the vendor acknowledges and agrees to the terms outlined in this Vendor Agreement.
